Section I: General Overview and Next Steps

As required by the Process for Amending the IANA Naming SLAs, the purpose of the public comment proceeding was to obtain community input on a proposed new service level agreements (SLAs) which would define expectations of request processing timeliness for Label Generation Rulesets (LGRs). If adopted, the new requirements will be added to the performance metrics as defined in the SLAs for the IANA Naming Functions Contract. The Repository of IDN Practices supports internationalized domain names (IDNs) by promoting the sharing of registry IDN policies. The IDN Repository houses the LGRs for registries that offer IDN registrations. The IANA naming functions include maintaining the LGRs through processing requests for the publication or modification of the rulesets for each TLD registry.

Following this public comment, the Customer Standing Committee (CSC) will share the final SLA plans with the country code Names Supporting Organization (ccNSO) Council and Generic Names Supporting Organization (GNSO) Council, after which, if approved, ICANN org and Public Technical Identifiers (PTI) will initiate the required activities to roll-out these SLA changes.
